We're looking for someone to decon this barn and take it all away. Not sure what the wood is, but maybe you know? Maybe wormy chestnut?

Not in a rush. This could be a winter-time project. Looking for motivated people, or ideally an insured business, who can take the whole thing off our hands and leave it a clean site. Not sure on price, but hoping to learn what's fair here by hearing out offers.

The wood is probably not furniture grade. Tried to capture the quality in these photos.

The building is very stable, but the second floor is crazy uneven. Would want someone to know what they're doing if bringing down piece by piece. Also open to a machine job if it can be done without impacting adjacent structures.

Let me know if this is of interest to you, and if you'd like to come take a look at it. We're patiently looking for the right person for the job.
